Virginia on my Mind

NEW artwork by Judy Green

Judy Green debuts her first solo show at the Art First Gallery this month.

“Virginia On My Mind” is a collection of new oil and acrylic paintings that highlight the beauty of Virginia in scenic views of Blue Ridge Mountain Vineyards, fresh picked lavender and floral blooms. Also included are iconic views of Fredericksburg such as the Falmouth Bridge, Hyperion Café, Carl’s Ice Cream and Chatham Manor as well as several still life paintings with Virginia themes.

Judy's work can also be viewed at Adventure Brewing Company. She created their Black Sail Scotch Ale beer label and several of her paintings are located at their Adventure Brewing Company North location.

Commission work is a big part of Judy’s passion. She has been a commissioned artist for over seven years. Creating a commission piece brings her great joy allowing her to sprinkle some of life’s special moments on canvas and create special keepsakes and gifts for her clients.
